Hurricane Gloria

by Virginia Arral

Sunlight greeted wearied residents Saturday morning as they prepared to remove boards and tapes from windows that some had put up just the day before to ward off the effects of Hurricane "Gloria".

The loss of electric power, fallen trees and boats washed ashore were the aftermath. The little sailboat off Gibbons' Beach was gone - it either sank or was washed ashore. Debris from several boats smashed on the rocks at Shipyard Park was scattered as far as the Gazebo.

The busiest place in town Saturday morning besides the shoreline was the Mattapoisett Diner where lines of people waited impatiently for a cup of coffee. A patron from New Bedford said very few places in the city were open, and what ones were had long lines.

The Police Department spokesman reported no major incidents as of Saturday morning - the only happenings of note were the many trees that fell on power lines.

There was a police department ban on auto traffic in the whole town from 1:30 p.m. on Friday, throughout the storm. On Saturday and Friday traffic was banned to the wharf to allow removal of boats and prevent congestion.

On Friday morning with the sun popping in and out of the darkening sky and winds gradually increasing to 40 miles per hours, Brownell Boat Works was bringing in the last of the boats waiting at the dock.

Tommy Brownell said that 420 boats were brought in in 2½ days with a crew of about 25 men. Brownell's removed all boats requested by the owners. Gazing out at the remaining sailboats in the harbor, Brownell said they'll have to ride out the best they can, but many will probably be up on the beach tomorrow.

Resembling a line of shopping carts at the grocery store check-out, the line of boats with their anxious owners were awaiting their turn to be brought to shore. All overheard comments gave praise to Brownell and his crew for their quick and efficient work.

A father was overheard telling his two young daughters, "Girls, this is a hurricane".

George S. White was heard to comment as he waited to get his Herreshoff 12 in from among the larger boats, "I didn't think I'd

CHURCH SIGN ON NORTH STREET DENIED

It wasn't so much the objection to the sign being placed on North Street as it was the type of sign the Mattapoisett Congregational Church was seeking to place on the 87 North Street property of Mrs. Gladys Ellis, that Selectmen last Tuesday decided to deny the request. The board recommended the Church Council return with a new proposal for a smaller, more tasteful sign in a different location.

The sign, displayed by Kenneth Stickney, chairman of the Church Council, was shown to be a 24 by 36 inch, brightly-colored metal sign. Stickney said the sign was the type used by the United Church of Christ. The Council believes the people coming off Route 195 could use help in having directions to the Congregational Church, said Stickney. He noted this would be a new sign and that the Church plans to replace the old sign presently hanging on Route 6 and Mechanic Street.

Of the abutters present, Barbara Heuberger, Ruth Heuberger and Lorraine Boardman, none favored any sign on North Street in a residential district and none favored the type of sign. A letter was read from an absent abutter, Casper Ferguson, who said he favored a sign.

Barbara Heuberger objected to a sign so close to her property and personally felt that if this sign was approved, it would open the door to more signs along North Street. Also she believes no one would be able to read the directions on the sign as they would be too small. Mrs. Boardman said she didn't like to see any signs on North Street and doesn't see the need for one in a residential area. Selectmen Chairman John DeCosta told the ladies anyone can apply for a sign permit, but that each one would be decided individually.

Selectman Frank Suzan said he felt if you're looking for a church a smaller sign at the Route 6 intersection with an arrow, similar to the one on Route 6 directing travelers to the Mattapoisett Museum, would look better. "I envisioned a smaller sign; I wouldn't like that sign across from my home", said Suzan.

Selectman James F. Huntoon said, in his opinion, the sign has an appearance of "advertising" the church. Stickney asked, "Do I understand you object more to this sign rather than to the idea of placing a sign?" The board agreed. Huntoon said they have to consider everyone's needs.

The Selectmen voted to ask the council to resubmit a new proposal, and a new hearing date will be scheduled.

In other business, Selectmen:

MET WITH Police Chief James Moran to discuss further the new changes in the Jail/Suicide law, affecting the way detainees are handled at the Wareham lockup. The new law, effective October 1, will make it necessary for each town to have a qualified person to check on the prisoner every 15 minutes. "Practically impossible for us," exclaimed the Chief.

Selectman Suzan asked Moran what procedure the town followed prior to the new law. Moran replied, basically, it was a department decision because it was not as strict as it is now. Last year, he added, the department had a total of 223 prisoners.

Chief Moran reported he and the chiefs of Rochester, Marion, and Wareham have come up with a plan they feel will work. "Everyone is in the same boat but we have good cooperation among the towns."

The procedure includes: as long as Wareham has someone locked up, they will have an officer checking and they will also watch a Marion, Mattapoisett or Rochester prisoner. If Wareham has no prisoner the first of the other three towns to bring in a prisoner will supervise. If a second or third town brings in a prisoner they will alternate with the first town on 8 hour shifts. If Mattapoisett has one prisoner, and then Wareham brings in a prisoner, the Wareham officer will take over. If Wareham has no one in jail, it will be Mattapoisett's own expense. "We're going to try to work it out amongst ourselves, the most feasible way for all of us to cover the law," said Moran.

Chairman DeCosta, saying this extra duty could run into a lot of money, asked Moran to keep a close check on the costs and expenses. "We may need to make a change in the police department budget."

MET WITH the Board of Health and Shellfish Warden Brian Nunes and agreed to close to all shellfishing the area from the mouth of the Mattapoisett River from the Town landing to a point adjacent to the other side of the river for 30 days.

The action was necessary because of the unfavorable report the Health Board members displayed from their own tests and those of the State DEQE. Dan Lee said "all tests came up high on the Mattapoisett River from Route 6 to the bay; up above Route 6 wasn't too bad". He added that the state recommended a 30-day emergency closure, effective immediately.

Lee noted neither the DEQE nor the town board knows the source of the contamination, but they are still testing. Evelyn Ellis, Board of Health chairman, said, "we will go out and look for pipes flowing into the river, if that's what it takes". The highest fecal coliform count was in the Mattapoisett Neck Road Brook.

Selectman Huntoon noted that this testing is costing the town money and suggested perhaps a special article could be put in a town meeting warrant to seek funding to continue testing. Mrs. Ellis added that it also is costing us valuable time and this will generate interest and concern with the river pollution and make the public more aware of the problem.

MET BRIEFLY with R. Scott Armbruster to discuss the flooding situation that existed on the Wagner's property on Brookside Drive. Armbruster explained that he built the house adjacent to the Wagner's house and was upset by the statements made at the September 11th Selectmen's meeting with Mrs. Wagner. Armbruster asked if any of the Selectmen looked at the situation; DeCosta said he did.

Armbruster admitted he had to put in fill, saying everyone on the street had to do the same. However, he said he put in underground pipes. "Water is going to run down the hill", Armbruster said, "and the Wagners can correct the situation by adding two feet of fill, then the water will go back where it belongs."

Huntoon told Armbruster the Board informed Mrs. Wagner the problem was a private matter and she should settle it with him or seek legal counsel. Armbruster said his conscience is clear on this, and he asked the board to use a little more discretion and do more research another time.

Chairman DeCosta read the proclamation and presented it to Police Chief James A. Moran. The Office of Emergency Medical Services of the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, in cooperation with the American College of Emergency Physicians, is sponsoring the 9th annual Emergency Medical Services Week as a time to recognize the importance of this service.

On behalf of the board, DeCosta expressed appreciation for the dedicated EMT personnel in town providing life-saving care to citizens in need. This is a vital and essential service they provide.

VOTED to give Town Accountant Betty Sears a pay increase to Step Three from minimum after her six month's employment period. The increase will take effect on October 8th.

NOTED FIVE APPLICATIONS have been received for the position of Selectmen's Clerk. Elaine Sylvia, who is resigning, will work for one more week until someone is hired. Executive Secretary Carol Adams will interview each candidate and make her recommendation to the Selectmen next week.

AGREED TO CHECK first with the town's insurance agent whether to repair or replace the motor of the boat used by the harbormaster and shellfish warden. The repair is estimated to cost $1,900; a new motor, $2,100. After checking the insurance, a request will go to the finance committee for funds, if needed.

Warden,: Bradley Barrows and James Sullivan.

ACCEPTED WITH THANKS a check in the amount of $50. from the Fairhaven Savings Bank to the Town Recreation Department. Barry Haskell, recreation director, informed Selectmen the money will be used to repair the basketball courts.

RECEIVED A COPY OF A LETTER from Fire Chief Donald Wood to Police Chief James Moran commending Officer Paul Silveira, 121 Brandt Island Road, for his help at the structure fire on 40 North Street on September 10th. Wood wrote, "It is very gratifying to know that our two departments can and will work well with each other when the occasion arises."

RECEIVED A LETTER from Kathryn McIntire repeating her request that the town enforce its regulations regarding the property of Conrad Roy, 56 Ocean Drive. She noted the situation has existed for over three years and recently has been spilling over a larger area. (Mr. Roy makes boat keels.) DeCosta noted town counsel is working on the matter. The complaint will be referred to the Building Inspector David Crook for a status report.

SCHEDULED an October 16th date to hold a joint meeting with representatives from the three town's school committees, boards of selectmen, band parents, ORR school department administration and music department staff, Florence Eastman Post 280 American Legion and Benjamin D. Cushing VFW Post 2425 to discuss preparations for the Old Rochester School marching band and the Veterans' Day Parade.

The session is being called at the recommendation of George S. White, chairman of the Legion's Parade Committee, who wrote to Donald H. Murphy, Principal of Old Rochester Regional High School. Because of the non-attendance of the ORR Band at the last Mattapoisett Memorial Day

Sound and Fury

- Editorial, DCJ

A major storm is a spectacle that, like it or not, is witnessed as a milestone of a lifetime. Nature in a fury is terrible in aspect, yet it rivets the eye and awes the mind. There is no memory stronger.

These photos of the storm at its landfall focus on the death of some boats amid the capricious saving of others all at the toss of the salty dice.

In this storm, we were spared the awful destruction of seaside homes by a fortunate bit of timing of the tide and a lucky turn of the storm. The flood with its destructive force never came. Thanks to early warning and to some tireless heroics by the Brownell crew hundreds of beautiful craft will take to the water next year in perfect condition. Others, not so fortunate, smashed on rock or grounded on sand as Mother Nature tossed the dice.

Through all of the storm, preparedness and town organization worked extremely well to avoid accident and danger to the people of the town. Those who ventured into the wind used the best of judgement and were rewarded by the spectacle. The way to "Gloria" was something semi-fierce. She was awesome but to our good fortune struck only a glancing blow. The town was prepared even for worse.

How foreign it is to us.
Boats lined up in the harbor, waiting to be brought to shelter. People putting tape on their windows and boarding up their houses, conversations being overheard about the latest news.

We're confused, we're scared.

News flashes come over the radio and T.V. with warnings, it's coming this way, they tell us, but what exactly is it? We don't know what to expect, our generation has never seen a hurricane in this area. We listen to what our parents tell us. God, they scare us. They're scared themselves. The thought of everything you own possibly being destroyed scares the hell out of you.

O.K., so we're prepared.

Everything is out of the cottage and it is boarded up. The windows in my room have a new look. Masking tape in the shape of a star will supposedly make the window stronger. Every candle in the house is out and ready to be used.

What now???? Wait .... and pray.

The wind picks up, the sky darkens and it begins to rain. So far, so good! Then, the lights flicker and eventually go out, no electricity. Not exactly what we are used to, but I suppose I can live without it for a while and not go crazy.

As I look out my window, I see a tree, bending, bending more. My God, it broke right off at the stump! From the kitchen window I watch two trees uproot. I've never seen anything like it!

Downtown, a sailboat has washed up onto the beach and another in three or four pieces is banging against the rocks. Many others hold on for dear life, rocking back and forth as if they were alive. Most houses are boarded up and some have even been evacuated.

I return home and sit in my room, waiting for the latest news. The voice on the radio tells us the worst is over. Thank God!

It's night now, and our cottage still stands, no damage done. Three trees that have been standing since I was a child will be dragged away tomorrow.

The electricity should return within a day or so, and we can all go back to the everyday routine life we lead, never forgetting the feeling of what happened and what could have happened.

Thank You

Of all the ports within the path of Gloria, Mattapoisett, by far, sustained the least amount of damage to the boats moored within her harbour. This can only

Harold Roeder, our trip coordinator, informs us that he has planned a New Year's trip to Bethlehem, PA. This is a tour that Collette does often, and it is for three days, leaving December 30th. It will be an excitingly different New Year's celebration.

Accommodations will be at the Allentown Hotel. The first evening you will be treated to a colorful nightlight tour of Bethlehem, followed by a home-cooked family-style feast in a restaurant with turn-of-the-century decor. Capping off a delightful evening you will see a wonderland of lights and fairytale-like setting in Koziar's Christmas Village.

On the second day visit Bethlehem's Moravian Museum, gift shop and book store with a professional Moravian guide. Following

BABYSITTER NEEDED

The Mattapoisett Woman's Club is in need of a babysitter at the Congregational Church for our monthly meetings. Sitters are compensated for their time. If you are interested please contact Dorothy Verville at 748-2077.

GARDEN GROUP

The Garden Group of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club got off to a fine start at the first meeting on September 18th. The plant auction offered a chance to bid on some excellent perennials as well as indoor plants and cuttings. We thank everyone for their generosity, and any stock left was sold or promised at the first Woman's Club meeting the next day.

We look ahead now to our first morning of flower arranging on Wednesday, October

Ocean Rowing Regatta

OCTOBER 5th

Marion's Alden Shell enthusiasts will again sponsor the Sippican Ocean Rowing Regatta on Saturday, October 5th, starting at 9:00 a.m. sharp at the Stones Point dock.

Weather permitting, the entrants will row around Kittansett Point into Sippican Harbor and finish the 6.3 statute mile race off the Beverly Yacht Club. Weather for this race has proved an unpredictable factor in the past 6 years. Several times a cold, gusty northwester blew and once a northeast squall swamped several shells and tested the oarman's seamanship. If severe weather occurs this year, the race will be to Bird Island and return or up the Weweantic River.

This Regatta is a major East Coast event for recreational oarsmen and leads up to the Head of the Charles Race which will be held this year on October 20th. The Regatta's Chairman this year is Dick Viall with David Arms, Gregg Stone and Ted Brainard on the Committee.

Several elite oarsmen, who have parti-

The Alden Ocean Shell Association, which is a national organization, with Dick Viall as President, has grown to a record 400 membership this year. One reason for the popularity of recreational rowing is its positive effect on health. Rowers enjoy a good workout in their favorite outdoor surroundings.

Best viewing of the race is off Stones Point at the start and Kittansett Point as the boats turn towards Ram Island.

Mattapoisett Board of Appeals

SEPTEMBER 26, 1985 - by VIRGINIA ARRAL
DENIED EXPANSION OF MARINA

The Board of Appeals last Thursday unanimously voted to deny the petition of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ringuette of 23 Dupont Drive for a special permit to double the number of moorings granted at a previous hearing from 75 to 150.

The hearing, rescheduled from September 19th because four of the five board members did not show up for the meeting, was conducted with a full board but many residents, who, because of hurricane preparations, did not attend. About 40 persons attended.

Robert Black, chairman of the Appeals Board, apologized for the need to reschedule and hoped too many were not inconvenienced. After the hearing Mr. Black explained the petitioners did not provide reasonable or sufficient information with regard to the impact of doubling of activity at the marina. "We need a reliable and clean-cut feeling the facility will not be going to degrade the environment or neighborhood more than it is now. We advised the Ringuettes, who wanted to pursue their request further, that they needed to submit to our board an environmental impact statement."

Ringuette's petition was presented by Attorney Richard Schaefer who explained the separate requests the owners want to operate on the more than six acres at 21-23 Dupont Drive as Leisure Shores Marina. They are: 1) expansion of the marina from 75 to 150 moorings in the Brandt Island Cove; 2) ability to launch and haul boats; 3) store for customers and to make repairs; 4) sell refreshments "on a cursory manner" on the property; 5) sell fuel to customers; 6) allow customers to work and live aboard boats.

The attorney said there had been a "marina of sorts" there for many years; that the marina wouldn't be detrimental to the neighborhood because owners would have shrubbery screening; that Ringuette has allowed the public to swim and shellfish in the area; that it would benefit boaters and residents by supplying an adequate, reasonably priced space; of the presently 75 moorings, 25 are fulltime and three are part time Mattapoisett residents.

Schaefer noted the DEQE has tested the water in the area, most recently in August of this year, and has reported the water is clean; that is, there is no more contamination now than there was in 1973 before the marina. He said boat owners are aware of the environment as they swim in the area and use the facilities available at the marina. He added that the bathroom facilities are sufficient for 75 more moorings and the septic system is adequate. Also, he noted, there is adequate on-site parking now and more can be constructed. A petition signed by 132 persons in favor of the expansion was read into the record.

In reply to questions, the attorney said repair areas would be screened; the refreshments would be vending machine operated, convenience-type for customers; the fuel tanks would be underground and have to comply with all local and state regulations.

Speaking in favor of the request, Al Pauline, former shellfish constable, said there never has been a problem in the five years he was constable. Al Tocci of Wareham who moors his boat at the marina spoke in favor saying, "I swim there and police myself and my boat and have not observed my boating neighbors creating any pollution problems.". Mr. Nichols said he lives close to the marina and hasn't observed anything much worse than it ever was and that the noise level isn't as bad as people think. It is true, however, that people do dump things.

Those speaking in opposition voiced essentially the same objections; namely, concern for the environment (not only fuel leakage but trash accumulation, noise and speeding cars; living on board could create rowdyism). In responding to the negative comments, Attorney Schaefer said the debris could be floating from anywhere and that loss of shellfish is more than a local problem - it's a widespread one.

Among the opponents and their objections were: Bob Field, Mattapoisett Neck Road (floating debris); Justin Perry, 3 Marina Drive (with no hydrants, no water supply except tank trucks for fires); Peter Cartwright, Driscoll Lane (depth of water and the possible need for dredging); Penny Hiller, Neck Road (waterfowl attracted by debris from boaters-getting tamed and at the mercy of hunters); Jim Hesketh, 2 David Street (nice area turned into a commercial disaster); an Antassawamock Road resident (excessive speed of boats while people quahog, digging on a sandbar); Mrs. Harry Roth, 2 Marina Drive (speed on Brandt Island Road and environment); Herve Lefebvre, Antassawamock Road (self-policing of fuel spills and debris); David Cameron, off Neck Road (questioned need for 75 more moorings); Dr. Hall, Dupont Drive (environmental damage; repairing an eyesore, oil spills, rowdyism); Victor Smith, Brandt Beach (reduced shellfish and floating debris).

Letters were read from those in opposition not in attendance, including Thomas and Jane Damary, Peter Duff, Mr. Field (an abutter from England), John Wolbast, Boston; Raymond Eastes, trustee of abutters' lots; and from the Board of Selectmen, Shellfish Constable Brian Nunes and Harbormaster Steven Mach.

Evelyn Ellis, chairman of the Board of Health, explained underground fuel tanks have to be approved by the Selectmen and the Health Board and have to be tested every six months. She noted 14 shellfish beds have been closed and this could make 15 if it becomes polluted. A lot of wells in the area could be affected and the demands on police, fire and harbor patrol protection should be considered before adding 75 more boat moorings.

Fire Chief Donald Wood cited a point of information saying he is concerned with cars and trucks carrying five gallon cans of gas; if there is an accident there could be a tragedy. He said a new type fiberglass tank can be put underground with more safety.

Ringuette answered some of the complaints saying he polices boaters himself on the use of facilities: boats use gas line and not

In conclusion Chairman Black asked Ringuette how he responded to the December 1984 cease and desist order placed by the building inspector because of repairing boats and other violations. The owner said the present inspector, David Crook, lifted the order in June 1985 after an inspection and said Ringuette did a good job complying with the order.

SECOND HEARING APPROVED

A second hearing, Dennis Mahoney and Sons, Inc. sought a special permit to change a non-conforming use (a doctor's office) to an art gallery and a one-unit living quarters at 15 Church Street, was approved. There were no objectors.

A.D. Tinkham, who will use the building for his art studio, said the structure was originally a post office, then a dentist's office before becoming a doctor's office. He said there would be less volume and less parking problems with a gallery than an office. He noted changes would be mostly cosmetic.

A letter was read from Michael Wood, 15 Cannon Street, an abutter, who said he did not object and felt an art gallery would be more appealing than an office and better Commander; Joyce McWilliams, Conductress for the State of Massachusetts; Charles Cary, Past District 12 Commander; Pat Harrington, Sr. Vice President of the State of Massachusetts, and her husband, Frank.

Each officer from District 12, both the VFW and its Ladies Auxiliary, were introduced and escorted to the head table where they were presented to those attending the reception. Officer of the Day was Robert Riddenbach of the Abington VFW and Conductress was Pauline Stevens of the Onset Auxiliary.

Several Posts and Auxiliaries throughout the state were represented at the reception. Included in the introductions were several Past State and District Commanders, Past State and District Presidents and those presently holding office on the State level.

DISTRICT 12 COMMANDER HONORED

Jere Hill of Wareham, District 12 Commander of the VFW, was honored at a reception held at the VFW Pavilion in Marion on September 14. Jere took office of District Commander in June at the State Convention in Worcester.

Since joining the Benjamin D. Cushing Post 2425 of Marion in 1983, Jere has been a very active member of the VFW. He has held the office of Quartermaster and Trustee on the Post level, as well as being Post Commander for the '76-'77 year and President of the Board of Directors for '75-'76. Jere has held several chairmanships, but is most noted for his 10 years as Voice of Democracy (VOD) Chairman and 2 years as the Post Color Guard Captain.

Jere states that two of his proudest moments as Captain of the Color Guard occurred during the year that the Post also served as State Color Guard for then State Commander Gardner "Gabby" McWilliams. It was during that year that the Color Guard placed third throughout the nation at the National Convention in New Orleans, and they also were asked to do the opening ceremony at the Jimmy Fund game in Boston at

On the District level he has served as Chaplain twice, District Inspector, VOD Chairman, Membership Chairman, and presently as Commander. State level includes the Budget Committee, Council of Administration, Deputy Inspector, and VOD Chairman. He has also served on the National VOD Committee.

On a personal level, Hill feels that promotion of membership and Americanism is his main goal for the year. It is the only way that the VFW can continue to support and work for veterans' rights and benefits.

Hill is married with 2 children. His wife and daughter are both active Auxiliary members, and his son has become a behind the scene worker for most of the Post functions.

MATTAPOISETT RESIDENT HOCKEY STANDOUT AT DARTMOUTH COLLEGE

Nicki Demakis, a former Bishop Stang tennis and field hockey standout, is starring for the Dartmouth College field hockey team this season.

Demakis was the leading scorer on the Big Green team last year, but has changed positions this season. She is now playing goalie for Dartmouth and has racked up 50 saves in her first four games.

A senior geography major, Demakis stopped 12 shots in her debut against the University of the Pacific, as Dartmouth took a 2-1 decision. She recorded nine saves, including three in overtime, to help Dart-

Here's how
Chiropractic treats
Athletic Injuries

Most athletes have come to recognize the hazards involved in their activities, and are among the most regular patients of chiropractic.

It is important to consult your doctor of chiropractic regularly, regardless of your type of recreational activity. If you are a parent, it is important to make certain your child does not suffer a spinal problem.

Your doctor of chiropractic will detect and correct subluxations, however incurred, and will arrest or prevent problems which they would produce. Chiropractic treatments can not only re-establish nerve function, but will relax you as well. With improved health, your enjoyment of your recreational activity will be enhanced.

Children's Museum

JABBERWOCKY PERFORMS

The Children's Museum in Dartmouth will be presenting a performance by "JABBERWOCKY", a participatory, educational comedy team, on Sunday, October 6th, at 2:00 p.m. Jabberwocky will present "DOWN IN THE DUMPS", a theatre experience that takes a delightfully humorous look at aspects of our environment. Ann Shapiro and Lisa Hawley delight audiences of all ages through storytelling, comic vignettes, masks, music and humor, flamboyant soft sculpture props and cartoon scenery. Jabberwocky is great fun for all ages! Tickets are $3.00 and will be available for reservation and at the door.

Jabberwocky will be presented as part of an ongoing series of family fun events at the Children's Museum.

The Children's Museum is located at 276 Gulf Road in South Dartmouth, and is open Tuesday-Saturday from 10 to 5 and Sunday from 1 to 5; closed Mondays. Call 993-3361 for more information.

"SAFETY SCIENCE"

The Children's Museum in Dartmouth will be offering a course in "SAFETY SCIENCE". The course will be held on Thursday afternoons from 4:00-5:00 beginning October 3rd, and continuing on October 10, 17 and 24. This course for children ages 9-12 will explore a variety of safety emergencies, including first aid, a CPR demonstration and a mock disaster. Emphasis is on what kids can really

MASK WORKSHOP

Just in time for Halloween! Children aged 7 and up will have the opportunity to create a sensational mask at the Children's Museum in Dartmouth on Sunday, October 13th, from 1:30 to 3:00 p.m. Fee for the Mask Workshop is $3.00 for members and $4.00 for non-members.

COLOR MAGIC

Come be a color magician! The Children's Museum in Dartmouth will be offering a workshop in Color Magic on Saturday, October 12, from 10:30-11:30 a.m. for children ages 5-6. Children will mix paint, play and learn more about color. Instructor will be Karen Snyder, an area educator. Fee for the course is $4.00 for Museum members and $6.00 for non-members.

TRADITIONAL PORTUGUESE HANDWORK

Every Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday morning for the fall season the Children's Museum will be offering demonstrations and workshop sessions in traditional Portuguese handwork and Portuguese rug weaving in conjunction with the Museum's new exhibit, "A Celebration of Portugal".

Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 10-11:30 Elsie Rodrigues, an area resident who has been doing handwork since she was seven years old, will share her techniques in Madeira work, cross stitching, knitting and crocheting. Her most popular activity is to help visitors make bean bags to take home.

On Wednesday mornings from 10-12 Mary Ellen Nochimow of Womichon's Weaving Workshop will be demonstrating rag weaving in the Portuguese tradition. Mary Ellen is an SMU graduate in textile design and frequently offers children's weaving workshops from her studios.

The handwork and weaving sessions are open to all ages and there is no pre-registration required. There is no charge for these sessions beyond the usual Museum admission fee, $1.50 adults, and $1.00 for children.

OCTOBER 3, 1984

I do not need a special day to bring you to my mind.

For days without a thought of you are very hard to find.

It was God's will to take you, He picked you from the rest.

His garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best.

Each time I see your picture you seem to smile and say, "Don't cry - I'm only sleeping". We will meet again some day.

Sadly missed, "Sis".

Coming to Zeiterion:

ENTRE MUSIC SERIES TO OPEN WITH PETER NERO

The Zeiterion Theatre and Entre Computer Center are extremely proud to present Peter Nero as the opening concert of the Entre Music Series on Sunday, October 6th, at 7:30 p.m.

Known the world over as a pianist, Mr. Nero has also gained prestige as a conductor, composer and arranger. A piano prodigy as a child, he began giving concerts at age 11 and by age 14 was studying at Julliard on a scholarship and making guest appearances with symphony orchestras. After receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree he discovered such diverse jazz artists as George Shearing, Dave Brubeck, and Art Tatum.

His fascination with improvisation led him into a long struggle to fuse the discipline of his classical training with the freedom and spontaneity of jazz. As he established his reputation as a top jazz artist, playing clubs from New York to Las Vegas, he developed what is known as "The Nero Style", combining the form and harmonic structure of the classics with the improvisation of jazz.

His first album with RCA, "Piano Forte", won him a Grammy Award in 1961 as "Best New Artist" of the year. In his 8 years with RCA he garnered eight Grammy nominations and two more Grammy Awards. He moved to Columbia Records where he added two more Grammy nominations, as well as a gold album and single for his recording of the music and theme from the film "Summer of '42". Subsequently, "Cashbox" named him "Instrumentalist of the Year".

After a number of appearances with various orchestras as both soloist and conductor, Mr. Nero was appointed Music Director and Principal Conductor of the newly formed Philly Pops Orchestra in Philadelphia in 1979. The venture was an immediate success and in 1983 Nero took on an additional prestigious post as Pops Music Director and Pops Conductor of the Tulsa Philharmonic, and more recently of the Edmonton Symphony.

Besides Nero's passion for the piano and baton, he continues to plunge ever more deeply into his activities in the electronics world. His knowledge and affection for consumer electronics began at the age of 15 when he designed and built an electronic baseball game, studded with flashlight bulbs and powered by batteries. Today he is an acknowledged and respected electronics expert who works with individual electronics firms as a consultant, and who serves as a spokesperson for the Electronics Industries Association/Consumer Electronics Group. Not to mention that when he is on the road he travels with two large suitcases filled with electronic equipment of all kinds, including a portable computer and printer to keep him in touch with all the business facts and figures of his career as a musician.

Appropriately, Peter Nero is being sponsored at the Zeiterion Theatre by Entre Computer Center as part of their Music Series, which also includes the Newport Jazz Festival All Stars with George Wein on November 23rd and The Clancy Brothers on

BCC FUND-RAISER FEATURES NOSTALGIC MUSICAL TRIP TO THE BIG BAND ERA

The nostalgia and romance of the big band era inspires the program at Bristol Community College's fourth annual fund-raiser October 19th.

The BCC Foundation will bring Don Neely's Royal Society Jazz Orchestra to the Arts Center at the Elsbree Street campus at 8 p.m.

"The orchestra's music sweeps you back in time to the sophisticated days of ballrooms full of men and women in formal dress doing the waltz, the swing and the fox trot," said Helen Marie Booth, Director of Development from BCC. "But the program provides more than nostalgic feelings. It's a high-quality experience with a style of music that is uniquely American."

The San Francisco-based orchestra, specialising in the music and vocals of what they call "the golden age of dance music", capture the exuberance and charm of the music by such legends as Duke Ellington, Paul Whiteman, Fletcher Henderson. They boast of a large following in San Francisco, enjoying long-running engagements at Earthquake McGoon's and the Mark Hopkins on Nob Hill.

The Royal Society Jazz Orchestra host their own weekly radio program, and is the only orchestra nationally broadcast live on CBS A.M. radio. They have released albums, with another on the way.

Tickets for the October 19th fund-raiser are $12.50 each, and available by calling the College at 678-2811, extension 169; or send $12.50 for each ticket to BCC Institutional Advancement Office, 777 Elsbree Street, Fall River, MA. 02720. The concert will be followed by a champagne reception in the Arts Center Lobby.

Proceeds will benefit the BCC Foundation, a private, non-profit corporation to raise funds for the institution's educational and community services. "Funds raised by the Foundation strengthen programs that are most important in the College's service to the community, including scholarships, equipment for academic programs, and community service projects."

SMU Gallery

Three free events for the public will take place at Southeastern Massachusetts University's Gallery in October.

On October 7-9 there will be an installation in the Gallery - a sort of "environmental set design" -- by artist Danny Mydlack.

Then on October 9 at 2 p.m. the installation will form a backdrop for "The Big Kid and the Little Man", a multimedia operetta for solo performance by Mydlack. There will be a reception for the artist after the performance.

From October 11 to November 1 the recent metal, stone, and wood sculpture of New York state artist Glen Zweygardt will be on exhibit.

Gallery hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday; 9 a.m. to noon and 2 to 5 p.m. on Wednesday; and 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday.

The Gallery is located on the first floor of the College of Visual and Performing Arts (Group VI) Building.

Visitors should park in lots 4 and 5.

For more information call 999-8546.

Acushnet Historical Society

ARTS/CRAFTS/FLEA MARKET

An Arts/Crafts/Flea Market will be held at the Acushnet Historical Society Museum Saturday, October 12th; rain date, Sunday, October 13th. Tables may be set up free of charge (bring own table). Call Kay Parker, 995-3905, any time during the day or Julie Taylor at 763-5255 after 5 p.m. The Society will close its museum the weekend of October 12, 13 and 14.

Episcopal Consecration

Leaders of all major denominations in Massachusetts will be present on Saturday, October 5th, from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. as the Reverend David Elliot Johnson is consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of the Episcopal Diocese of Massachusetts. With the Roman Catholic Cathedral of the Holy Cross in Boston's south end as the site of the consecration, and the participation of leaders from the Roman Catholic, Protestant and Orthodox communities, the service will be characterized by a decidedly ecumenical spirit.

The Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, the Most Reverend John M. Allin, will be the chief consecrator. Many Episcopal bishops from around the country will also participate.

The Cathedral will be filled to capacity as 2,800 people attend the service, an additional 1,000 watch the proceedings on closed-circuit television in the basement chapel.

The Reverend David Johnson will become the 14th bishop of the Diocese of Massachusetts when the current bishop, the Reverend John B. Coburn, retires in 1986. Formerly the rector of St. Boniface Church in Sarasota, Florida, Fr. Johnson brings to his new position a strong pastoral background as well as a history of leadership in social concern and ecumenical activities. He was elected by the diocese on May 18 after a six-month search process.

Music for the service will be provided by a 200-voice choir representing parishes around the diocese. Brass and tympani from the Boston Symphony Orchestra and organ will accompany the congregation and the choir, which will sing 5 anthems, two of them original for the service.

Glass Museum

A new series for members and their guests of the New Bedford Glass Museum celebrates the Burmese centennial in a very special way, through the food of the Orient.

Starting with the rijsttafel served at the Burmese Ball, "The Gourmet's Burma Trail" will lead to new discoveries about the subtle, surprising cuisines of the East. Each six-to-ten course banquet has been specially selected to serve the most delicious, exquisite creations of Asia's great cuisines. The dishes are usually ones not found on regular menus, requiring special ingredients and preparation. We guarantee that each meal will introduce you to delicacies you'll relish, and remember long after.

Not so incidentally, you'll be introduced to Oriental cultures in an intimate, unique way, learning about the histories of each cuisine and the people behind them.

Transportation is on your own, but the Museum provides maps and assists with car pooling. Each banquet is $30. per person, including wine, or non-alcoholic beverage, and tips. Paid reservations should be made at least one week in advance, and

ST. JUDE'S NOVENA
May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be adored, glorified, loved and preserved throughout the world now and forever. Sacred heart of Jesus, pray for us. St. Jude, worker of miracles, pray for us. St. Jude, help of the hopeless, pray for us.
Say this prayer 9 times a day. By the 8th day your prayer will be answered. Say it for 9 days. It has never been known to fail. Publication must be promised. Thank you St. Jude.
